THREE GAMES END!

Congratulations are in order to John Buttila, David Anderson, and Kevin Wilson on their wins in "Wine Is Fine", ADVANCED CIVILIZATION, and "Albert" respectively. Chuck Hanna has volunteered to run the next 18xx game, and Flint Webb the next ADVANCED CIV. Since RCW is likely to take two pages a turn, we'll hold off on replacing "Albert" just yet. A new AOR game starts this time. We have Klausutis, Reynolds, Copeland, Watson, Frueh & Webb. See p 7 for your initial card.

ALL BUT AUSTRIA BUILD!! To Stab or not to Stab?

Fall 1907

XII
1998i

MINAS MORGUL: The noose around Austria is tightening, but the trap is hardly secure. Anatolia could easily fall to Wormtongue, while the specter of an unstoppable Russian steamroller forming should Wormtongue be dispatched should be enough to give pause to the French. The German position is precarious and the English only slightly less shaky.

EMBASSY BEAT

ST PETERSBURG: The chickens come home to roost, in that henhouse otherwise known as Budapest. The English are making hay while the sun shines, but that's not going to help the Austrians come harvest time. We reap what we sow.

Archduke to All: OK, I admit it--4 on 1 will kick my butt. Now how about I start getting somebody to help me out a little bit? The fact that all of you are heading my way means that a lot of back doors are open! Anyone want to start playing Dip again?

Field Marshal York has ordered all units to seek sanctuary in Argentina, via Vladivostok, if necessary, presenting the Tsar with a messy mop-up problem even as Germany reclaims its capital from the Tsar's tipsy troops.

BORIS WORLD PRESS REVIEW

New York Times--(Paris) - With the fleets and armies of Europe mobilized and in conflict it is a rare event that draws people's attention from the front lines. The upcoming French elections are just such an event. Commentators believe the race will come down to the closing hour of the polls. French fleets stalled another attempted invasion of England this Fall to let the seamen vote while eastern defenses held ground waiting to see who would rise to lead the Tri Colour. Much of Europe is doing the same thing. "This election could be the most important event of the new century," a high ranking Italian official said on the grounds of anonymity. "Whoever wins in Paris may very well hold the fate of the continent in their hands."

ERRATA: There was no Greek F TRI to not order. Albanian A NIS cannot retreat to SOF, but can to OLT.

The concession vote failed with two "Nay" votes received.

CLIFFHOME: Rumania gains in the growth race against Turkey as she grinds hapless Bulgaria and Serbia into the dustbin of history. Albania has two of the three centers Rumania needs to win, leaving one of TRI, SKO, SAL, or even CONE or THR as the clincher. Can congenital enemies Greece and Turkey put aside centuries of enmity long enough to thwart Rumanian hegemony?

PRESS:

TURKEY-WORLD: I'll answer Bulgaria's press in my end game statement fully, but as designer I will say that I have seen every power win in games, and I've seen 10-12 finishes. I will concede that Rumania and Greece may have a slight edge, but don't France and Turkey in regular Dip? And neither R nor G can win in BW VI with poor play.

TURKEY-Boris: Thanks for your defense. And NMRs didn't hurt me here. My diplomacy was for once decent. Makes a difference. I'd like to play another BW VI in Boris!!

PHIL REYNOLDS TO DAVID ANDERSON: I have played Balkan Wars VI exactly once and won it exactly once -- playing Bulgaria. Greece was my ally until the very end (when I had to stab him for the win, of course), and I turned the game by turning on a strong Serbia in the midgame. You CAN win this variant as Bulgaria. I'm proof. So stop your whining already!

HAMBURG: I want to thank all the players for a very enjoyable game. Thanks for letting me win my first game in "Boris." I also want to thank Mark for putting up with my many rules misunderstandings. I probably caused him to refrain from ever GM'ing again.

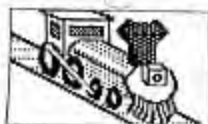

Chuck was very kind to take over Barcelona, and thanks to Genoa for dropping out of the game while in the lead! Tactically speaking, I got pretty lucky. In the second epoch I seemed to collect few commodity cards and all the "nasty" cards. That prevented you guys from using the nasty (amine, black death, etc.) cards against me once I got the lead. And I kept hoping for commodity cards. Live and learn.

LONDON: This is my 1st complete AoR game. My one ftg game at AvalonCon two years ago only went to the 2nd Epoch (I came in 2nd or 3rd). One other postal game (Scooby in SOB) was aborted and another "That S.O.B." by e-mail has recently made Turn 7. This ought to account for a lot of the errata that Mr Farrow rightfully Baggelates me with. Anyway, I thought I was doing well until Herr Copeland (always decrying the perfidy of PARIS) got CATHEDRAL. After that, I figured I was in second place, but NOOO, Venice ended 154 pts ahead of me. I enjoyed it, but had I not been a starter I could've assumed Genoa and made things much more interesting for Herr Copeland.

THE CAST: Riek Copeland, Kerry Watson, Mark Frueh, Flint Webb, Phil Reynolds, and TJ Klausulis. You each start with $40 and a card (_____). Due next time is your bid for capital. If they're all in early enough, we'll e-mail the result and your second card and we can progress to Turn 1 proper. If you opt not to play, let me know soonest so I can scrounge up a replacement.

SILVERTON

Big Bee-Boo!
Turns 5b/6a

ERRATA: Boris filled in the wrong box for #3 (no biggie as #3 will fill it this turn). Sunnyside Coal (#47) is already owned. This is a biggie as standby player Anderson surveyed south hoping to buy a claim that #4 already owned. So since it was basically my fault, I'm going to change his last survey to "east to Rangely". Shouldn't screw over emergency replacements should we?

VOTERS - (PLEASE SIGN YOUR NAME LEGIBLY)

Again this year, The Committee is soliciting a $1.00 donation per vote to defray costs of the awards themselves. This is a voluntary donation and does not affect your vote in any way. We hope to continue awarding plaques, but with the apparent demise of the PDORA Auction (our main source of funds), we may have to switch to something less expensive. Also, please note that the number of voters has declined in recent years. Along with your votes, the Committee is requesting input from the voters as to whether the awards themselves should continue at all. The Committee currently consists of Melinda Holley (Chairperson), Fred Davis (Treasurer), Gary Behnen, Paul Kenny, and Robert Lesco.

Please send your votes, contributions, and comments to: Melinda Holley, 1823 Enslow Blvd., Huntington WV 25701. Ballots will be accepted through Aug. 21, 1999. Thank you for your participation.
